

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING between

NORFOLK SOUTHERN RAILWAY COMPANY

BROTHERHOOD OF MAINTENANCE OF WAY EMPLOYEES

SYSTEM DISCIPLINE RULE

IT IS AGREED, Rule 30 of the July 1, 1986 NW-WAB Agreement, as amended, and Rule 40 of the October 1, 1972 SOUTHERN Agreement, as amended, are modified as follows:

(a) An employee who has been in service more than sixty (60) calendar days shall not be disciplined or dismissed, nor will an unfavorable mark be placed upon their record without a fair and impartial investigation. This provision recognizes the Carrier's right to issue letters of counseling and instruction and that such letters do not constitute discipline. At such investigation the employee may be assisted by duly authorized representatives. The employee may be held out of service, except for minor offenses, pending such investigation and in such cases shall be given written confirmation thereof as soon as practicable.

An employee who is required, after being cited to a discipline investigation, to make a written statement in connection with any matter that may eventuate in the application of discipline, shall be accompanied by their union representative should they so desire, provided that such representative is readily available. A copy of the employee's statement, if reduced to writing and signed by the employee, shall be furnished to the employee and union representative.

An employee required to attend a discipline investigation will be given not less than ten (10) days' advance notice, in writing, of the date of the investigation which shall set forth the precise charge against the employee with a copy to the duly authorized representative. The investigation shall be held within 30 days of first knowledge of the offense. The location of the investigation will be the Carrier's office closest to the location at which the incident occurred. However, an alternative site for the Investigation may be selected based on mutual agreement between the Carrier and the employee's duly authorized representative.

At the request of either party the investigation will be postponed; however, such investigation will not be postponed in excess of ten (10) calendar days beyond the date first set except by mutual agreement. If the charged employee fails to attend the duly scheduled investigation, without having provided evidence of good cause for such failure to attend, the Carrier may proceed with the investigation in absentia and such proceeding in absentia shall not constitute the basis for any claim with respect to such employee's right to contractual due process.

A written transcript of statements taken at the investigation will be made, and a copy furnished to the duly authorized representative at the time the decision is rendered. Decision will be rendered in writing to the employee and representative within twenty (20) days after completion of the investigation unless an extension of time is agreed upon.

It is recognized that the Carrier is responsible for ensuring that an accurate transcript of the investigative proceedings is made. However, this will not preclude the use of comparable equipment by the employee or the duly authorized representative to make a record of the proceedings for their own use.

(b) At the investigation or on appeal an employee may be represented by one or more "duly authorized (accredited) representatives" as designated by the General Chairman. The General Chairman shall determine the duly authorized (accredited) representatives and so inform the Carrier in writing in advance.

(c) An employee who has been notified to appear for an investigation shall have the option, prior to the investigation, to discuss with the appropriate Carrier official and General Chairman or representative designated by the General Chairman, the act or occurrence and the employee's responsibility, if any.

If disposition of the charges is made on the basis of the employee's acknowledgment of responsibility, the disposition shall be reduced to writing and signed by the employee and the official involved and shall incorporate a waiver of investigation and shall specify the maximum discipline which may be imposed for employee's acceptance of responsibility.

Disposition of cases under this paragraph (c) shall not establish precedence in the handling of other cases. Discipline imposed in accordance with this paragraph (c) of this Section is final with no jurisdiction over such disputes involving disciplinary matters resulting in dismissal, suspension or reprimand to provide expedited resolution of such disputes. However, either party may notify the other of its intention to progress a particular disciplinary matter to the National Railroad Adjustment Board or other Public Law Board or Special Board of Adjustment.

(h) The time limits of this Rule may be extended by written agreement between the authorized Carrier Officer and the employee's duly authorized representative. When U.S. mail is used, the postmark will determine when the correspondence was placed in the mail.

This agreement made and executed in Norfolk, Virginia, this 14th day of March, 2001.
